

Overview

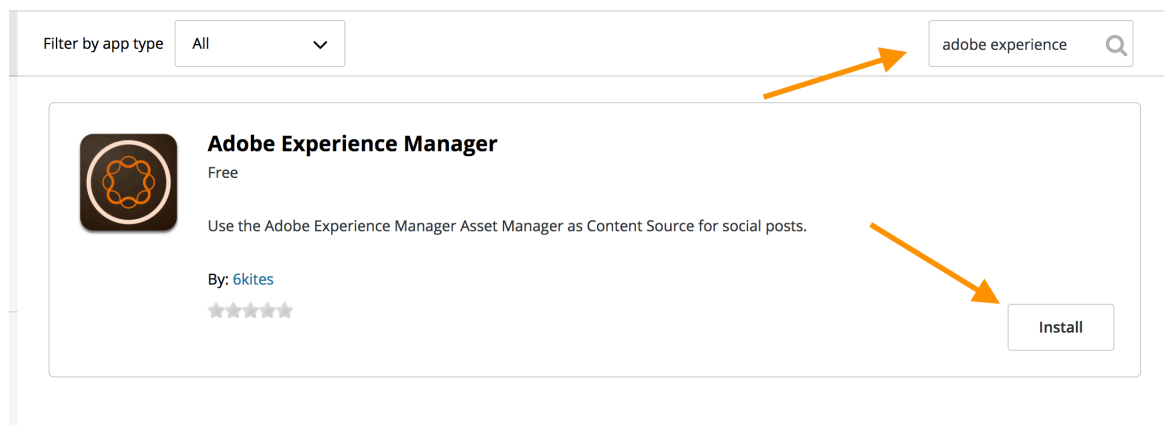

There are two ways you can install the Adobe Experience Manager, as a traditional Hootsuite App application, which lets you access assets in the Compose window and the Publisher or as Media Library in the new Composer. You can install one or both of these options.

Installing Adobe Experience Manager for Hootsuite in the Compose Window and Publisher

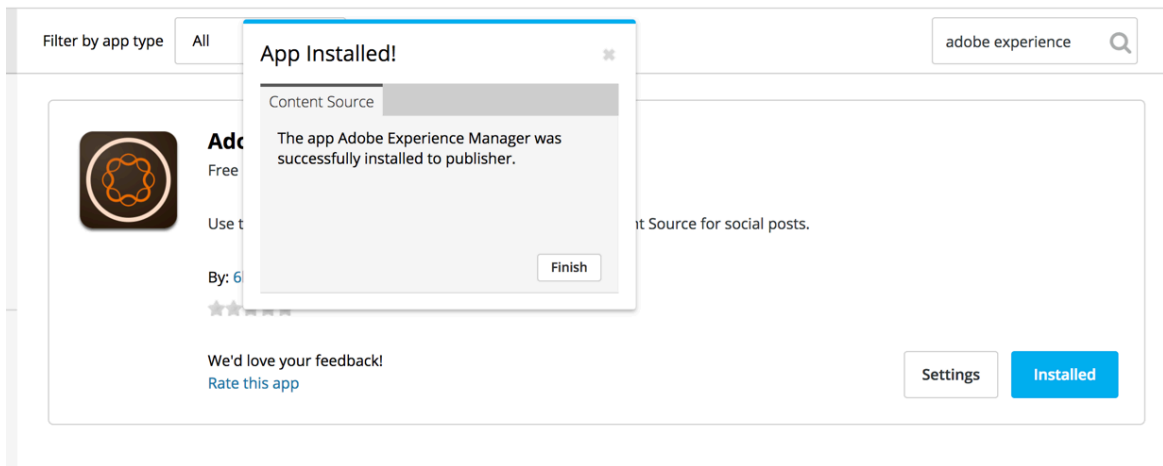

The Adobe Experience Manager for Hootsuite is installed from the Hootsuite App Directory.

Search for "Adobe Experience Manager", then click install.

The app is now installed and ready to be Configured (/connecting).

Installing Adobe Experience Manager for Hootsuite Media Source in the New Composer

Click the Compose Beta button

Click Open Media Library

Find AEM Assets for Hootsuite in the dropdown and click install

In order to access assets stored in to the Adobe Experience Manager, you will need to provide its URL and your login and password. The AEM instance must be accessible from the Internet in order for Hootsuite to acces assets. If it is behind a firewall, please contact have your network admin contact us.

Fill in your login details and hit Verify

A screenshot of a form titled 'Enter Your Adobe Experience Manager URL'. The form has four input fields: 'URL' containing 'https://aem.example.com', 'Username' containing 'myaccount', and 'Password' containing '.....'. Below the password field is a green 'Verify' button and a link that says 'Need help?'. The form is set against a light gray background.

The Adobe Experience Manager is now ready to use as a content source (/help).

FILES (9)

The image shows a selection interface for AEM Assets. At the top, there are three folder icons with labels: 'we-retail-cle...', 'we-retail-scre...', and 'we-unlimited-a...'. Below these is the text 'FILES (9)'. A grid of nine image thumbnails is displayed. An orange arrow points from the second thumbnail in the top row (a rock formation with a natural archway) to the eighth thumbnail in the bottom row (a cartoon owl wearing a white shirt with 'I ❤️ HHS' on it).
